

90.3 WCPN ideastream®: Little Action In General Assembly To Stem Foreclosures

Over the past 4 years, Ohio has seen around 337-thousand home foreclosures, but state legislators have yet to approve any major bills to stem the tide. Democrats who dominate the Ohio HOUSE have okayed two proposals...but they're upset that Republicans who dominate the Senate have ignored them....and haven't even okayed any alternatives. Statehouse correspondent Bill Cohen files this report.

<http://www.wcpn.org/WCPN/news/30180/>